

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE ¹
RELATIONSHIP WITH NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS WITHIN THE UNITED STATES FOR FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE PURPOSES

(Effective 24 November 1982)

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947, Executive Order 12333, and as directed by the National Security Council, policies and procedures are herewith established to ensure effective and secure exploitation of non-governmental organizations and individuals within the United States for foreign intelligence purposes.

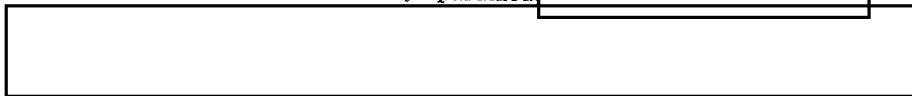

1. Purpose

The Central Intelligence Agency is designated to administer, as a service of common concern on behalf of the Intelligence Community, the task of enlisting the aid within the United States of cooperating non-governmental organizations and individuals as witting sources of foreign intelligence information.

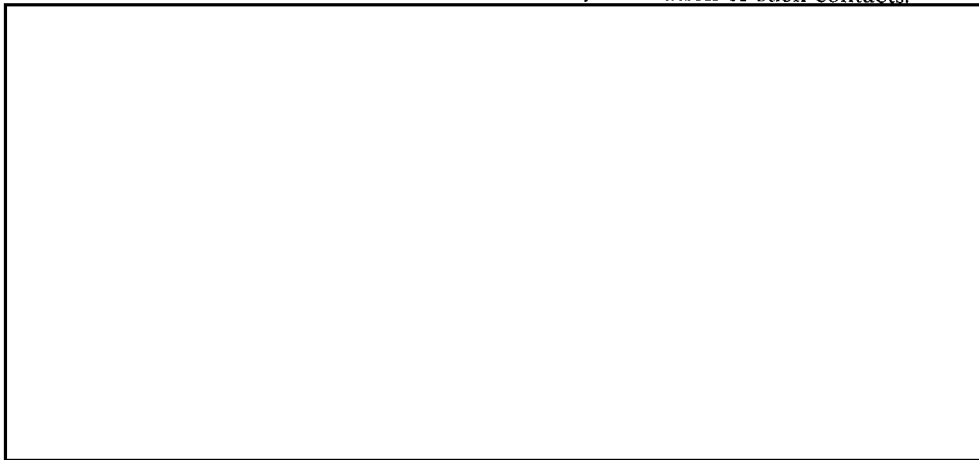

2. Primary Responsibilities

The Central Intelligence Agency, in carrying out its responsibilities, will:

- a. Determine the foreign intelligence potential of such sources to satisfy established national intelligence requirements.
- b. Maintain a central index of such sources in the United States.
- c. Establish procedures to ensure that the interests of organizations and individuals contacted will not be jeopardized.

- d. Establish standards and procedures for security evaluation of such contacts.

25X1
25X1

25X1

¹ This directive supersedes DCID No. 2/3, 18 May 1976.

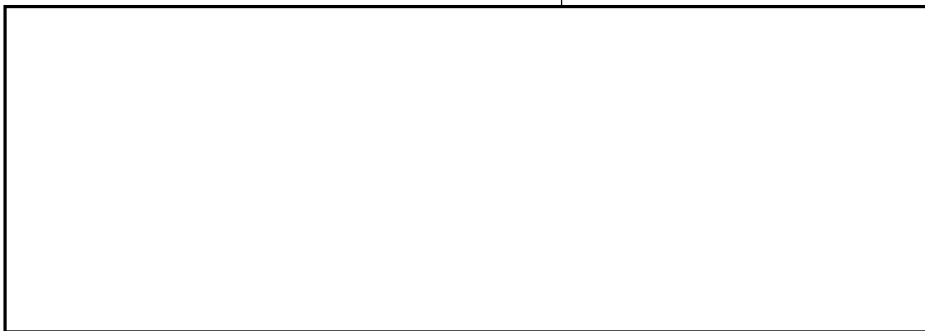

- h. Inform Intelligence Community organizations of the availability within the United States of selected individuals having a foreign intelligence potential so that such organizations may furnish requirements, provide specialists for briefing or debriefing, or request direct contact as appropriate.
- i. Publish and disseminate to Intelligence Community organizations foreign intelligence information obtained through this program.

3. Intelligence Community Responsibilities

Other components of the Intelligence Community may participate in this program under the supervision of the Director of Central Intelligence.

Responsibilities of Intelligence Community components are listed below.

- a. Provide to the CIA requirements for foreign intelligence information to be obtained from domestic sources in consonance with intelligence objectives and priorities established by the Director of Central Intelligence.
- b. Transmit to CIA for appropriate publication and dissemination full information and reports resulting from approved direct contacts by their representatives with domestic sources. Where direct publication and dissemination is authorized by CIA, the appropriate agency will forward to CIA full information and reports, including the identity of sources, for central index purposes.
- c. Assign to duty in CIA field offices or in CIA headquarters, by mutual agreement and within their capabilities, representatives to serve their interests in the domestic collection program under the direction of the appropriate CIA official. Intelligence Community organizations may also, at their discretion, establish active working liaison between their field elements and CIA field offices.

- f. Nothing in this directive shall be interpreted to apply to contacts by Intelligence Community organizations with domestic sources in the normal execution of their policy, enforcement, and statutory responsibilities.

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

SECRET